Fear the Dead 1: (A Zombie Apocalypse Book) Jack Lewis

Kyle Vauss hikes the ruins of Northern England, a broken man running from his past. He has one more journey to make through the zombie apocalypse that was once Britain, and maybe then he can forgive himself for what happened to his wife.

They said the outbreak would only last a few days...fifteen years later the world has gone to hell. The infected roam the streets, and at night the mutated stalkers leave their nests to kill. Nobody knows what they are, or where they're from. But anyone caught outside after dark will find out how dangerous they can be.

Kyle has one last trip to make and a promise to his dead wife to fulfill. When a kid called Justin tricks Kyle into taking him along, Kyle has to learn to trust others again. He doesn't want to face his past, but there are some things that you can't turn away from. He thought he was a grizzled survivor, but this is just the beginning of the horror.

Praise for the Fear the Dead - Zombie Apocalypse series from other readers:

'Loved this book. It had everything you want to see in a good apocalyptic story. And it's great to see a British author giving the likes of Mr Kirkman a run for his money. Bring on the next book. Can't wait.'

'Excellent baddies and a realistic depiction of a post-apocalyptic future. Fear the Dead has left me wanting more and I'd love to know what happens next. I would read a sequel in a heartbeat!'

'The author Jack Lewis is the mist of writing what could be one of the classic end of the world zombie tales in years to come, that's if we are not wiped out by a zombie apocalypse.'
