A story consisting of suspense, hope, drama and unconditional love

Richard, a self-made man of the late 1800s west, has ordered a bride through a service. Deliberately choosing the ugliest of the photos the agency provided, he has no use for women in the romantic sense, having watched his own father fall apart after his wife left. He is surprised to be met at the station by a beautiful young Laura with sparkling blue eyes and black hair.

Laura Wilks is instantly captivated by the dark haired, dark eyed man who picked her up from the station. Expecting at least a short courtship, she is disappointed when he immediately packs her to the nearest courthouse to be married. However, she remembers that he believes her to be from a wealthy family, not the daughter of a housekeeper that she actually is. While she is ashamed she never corrected his misconception, an immediate marriage would prevent him from sending her back to Philadelphia.

She is devastated to hear that he has no interest in being romantically involved, though he had alluded to as much in his letters. He tells her that she will be for keeping his house and entertaining business partners as the need arises. Unable to imagine an entire lifetime without love, Laura decides she will set out to woo her own husband by being the very best wife possible.

Will Laura be able to coax love from her reluctant husband by applying all her wifely abilities? Or will she forever be trapped in a loveless marriage?
