His mother, Sarah did everything that she could to provide him with the life that he deserved but struggled with depression and anger towards Steven's father. The anger is often taken out of Steven and as he grows into a man he begins to feel that he is unlovable.

After years of taking care of himself while his mother was gone to work he has become cold and calloused. When Steven is 25 his mother marries a rich businessman that makes Steven an offer that he can't refuse. Steven is to marry his step-father's business partner's daughter. If he is successful at doing this, he will be given the position of CEO in his step-father's business.

Love, heartbreak and deceit are almost more than Steven can take but when Tommy threatens more than just Steven's job he takes it too far.
