JERRY RANKIN, President Emeritus of the International Mission Board, SBC writes: “It is important for every Christian to learn that they are not exempt from disappointments, tragedy and grief. In fact, it is through these experiences that one comes to know the depth of God's grace and a victorious life in Christ that supersedes suffering and loss. Not everyone goes through the loss of a child as Jennifer Marshall, but her testimony is applicable to all. Her personal and transparent way of writing puts the reader in the midst of her roller coaster of emotions. 'Out Came the Son' is a powerful testimony of discovering God's glory through the most painful life experiences.”
