REGENCY ROMANCE: The Orphan (Pride and Prejudice variation) (Arranged Marriage Historical Romance with Mr. Darcy Collection) Margaret Ritz

When my parents died when I was the age of twelve, I was sent to live at St. Mary's Catholic Orphanage, and there I learned to love and live again. I thought that I would live at the orphanage for the rest of my life, but as I grew into adulthood, the kindly Father Beyer recommended me for an appointment as a scullery maid at the majestic and fabled Winchester Manor. And even though I was nervous about leaving my childhood home, I couldn't help but be thrilled by the prospect of my new life.

As I began to become accustomed to my new life at Winchester Manor, the master of the house, young Edward, began to take notice of me, and I of him. And soon enough, we were deeply in love. But if Edward's cruel older brother, Jacob, has anything to say about it, our love may not endure?
