Things We Did for Love Rashieka D. Sims

Have you ever been involved in a high speed car chase, had to bail your grandma out of jail, or committed vandalism in the middle of the night all in the pursuit of love...No?

I guess these types of things only happen to Teri. She's been trying for twenty-eight years to get this love thing right and for some reason she hasn't found the exact formula, but this doesn't mean she's ready to give up just yet. The one thing she's learned through her experiences is this...NO MATTER THEIR AGE, SOME WOMEN ARE JUST INSANE!!

They say it's a thin line between love and hate, but Teri with the help of her family and friends, will show you that it's more like a thin line between love and crazy. The best remedy for the love blues is to laugh through the pain...or at least laugh at other people's pain.

Rashieka Sims discovered at an early age that she had a passion for writing and a comedic sense of humor. She initially started her journey as an author by writing poetry but stopped writing when a junior high computer class sparked her interest in computer programming. After graduating from Mississippi State University with a B.B.A in Business Information Systems, she decided to go back to writing and combine her love of writing and her comedic storytelling ability into Things We Did for Love.
