A Complete Novel With NO CLIFFHANGER**

As a lifelong romantic, Jasmine was crushed when her husband left her. She had just found out she was pregnant with the man of her dream's child only to find out after she told him about the baby that he was gone.

He didn't even have the decency to tell her he was leaving in person, but wrote her a letter saying that he wasn't ready for a child and he had to leave. The scars from this incident would haunt Jasmine for many years, and as she would read the letter almost daily.

While she loved her son Bradley, working many shifts as a waitress while trying to better herself through online courses was taking a toll on her. She was so thankful her wealthy friend, Gwen, was always up for babysitting and lending a caring ear.

Jasmine longed for the day that love would come back into her life, until one day she met the most handsome cowboy who she was serving at one of her tables. His green eyes pierced her soul, and his chiseled jaw reminded her of a greek god. She came to know the cowboy as Dillon, a local ranch owner, who threw her aback one day when he left his number on a napkin with his always generous tip.

Jasmine, was weary of starting a new relationship, but after some support from her friend Gwen, she finally decided to give it a shot. The next few weeks were spectacular and Jasmine felt like she was walking on air. Everything was like a brave new world until she met Dillon's father Marsh.

Marsh was a very serious and powerful man, and one day after work she found him in the parking lot waiting for her. His warning was simple. Stay away from his son if she knew what was best for her.

Will Jasmine listen to Marsh and break things off with Dillon? Or will their love overcome all odds?
