We all know about the Power of Positive Thinking and we've all heard about the Law of Attraction. What is fascinating, with pictures and text for the layman, is HOW and WHY these things work -- with some real insights into the Soul-Mind connection and how Vision really works. The Quantum Physicists did not set out to prove the reality behind Metaphysics, but their latest discoveries, and those of a Cognitive Neuroscientist from South Africa, have discovered the processes at work and this book examines how Man functions in what have been called Reality Fields. Our world appears to consist of Zero Point Energy, torsion waves and holographic interference waves -- and our subconscious mind uses and decodes them. In addition, the book examines Nutrition for the Brain so that the reader has a starting point to choose to avoid Age Related Dementia, or not. And a new field of Quantum Biology is examined and what that means for the future of medicine, agriculture and science as a whole. Spiritual insights, humor and Man-Woman differences are examined, as well as basic Brain 101 information-- all intended to be useful daily information, as opposed to scientific talk. A lengthy section (in Ch. 9) examines why violent video games harm our youth and how it is done via prions in our brains. Lastly, Vision is examined even to the point of showing how the Eye-Brain connection can and does deceive us. Vision is a quantum process called tunneling and the Visual Cortex is not what you were told it was (in high school). Vision is holographic, as the late Michael Talbot said, and that raises the issue of what kind of a world we are really living in, what anomalous are, what is going on with the Double-Slit Experiment, and more. This is a fascinating look at Man and his world via the latest Quantum Mechanics discoveries. Then, further insights can be gained via two related books: Transformation of Man and Quantum Earth Simulation. More than brain candy, Man is part of the Hologram and interfaces it thru his Mind. The purpose? Earth is a School and the more he knows about himself, and the wonders of his Reality, the more he becomes an Earth Graduate and moves on to PARTICIPATE in running the World and Metaverse around him... Earth is only the beginning. Note: this book expands and replaces the Amplified Science of Mind.
