The Outlaw:

Lawton "Silver" Silverton is an outlaw who has come back to Blackhawk as their new sheriff. Sadie Hunter has been waiting for his return for three years, and now she's not in a hurry to have him uncover her secrets. Can a man who has sworn to protect a past love earn her forgiveness before he's lost her forever?

The Gambler:

Jake Stonewall wins a mail-order bride in a poker game and plans on selling her to the highest bidder until he realizes he knows her. Rose Walker wants to rid herself of her tarnished past and start over as a mail-order bride. But when she arrives in Drywater she finds she's been gambled away to the last man she ever wants to see again. Will a woman who wants desperately to change her life have to blackmail a man who's done her wrong in order to get what she's been promised?

The Bounty Hunter:

Rena East disguises herself as a boy in order to try to save her doomed brother from the gallows. But when she steals bounty hunter, Killian McCree's horse, she has only asked for more than her share of trouble. Can a woman who is wanted dead or alive convince a man who wants to bring her in for the bounty on her head, to help her before she is sent to the gallows?

The Drifter:

Chase Masters is a drifter who is mistaken for the stagecoach bandit, Bloody Bart. Nessa Pemberton is a widow with a child and maimed brother trying to run a stage coach station by herself. And when a bandit shows up wounded in her barn and claims to be just a drifter, she needs to either kill him or cure him. Can a man who has lived a life of running from his own demons stay in one place long enough to help a beautiful woman in need of the protection of a man?

The Gunslinger:

Sinclair "Sin" Graves has turned to gunslinging after seeing his mother killed five years ago. Now the man he's hunted is hunting him, and things could only end up getting ugly. Millie Hodge is the daughter of the town's judge, and also Sin's past sweetheart. Now Sin's back in town and he owes the judge a favor - and she ends up in a position she's not sure she wants to be in where Sin is concerned. Can a schoolteacher with a dark secret forgive the man she's loved for choosing his guns over her? And will Sin be a fast enough draw when it comes to rebuilding a broken relationship with a woman he's never forgotten?
