Double Summertime Shirley Kielder

August 1944. In the heart of the idyllic English countryside and the most perfect summer in years, the war seems very distant. Bright, ambitious Claudia, her head full of poetry and Hollywood films, craves glamour and excitement. She's determined to find romance in those enchanted days and endless evenings that never darken into night. But her illusions are shattered and loyalties are betrayed. As the fairy tales lose their power, Claudia becomes the unwitting cause of tragedy.
