Cursed Love (Heart of a Bear Book 1) Kelly Lawson

Ramona is the victim of an old curse

Forced to transform into a vicious bear at every new moon because of her father's crime, all Ramona Campbell ever wanted was to be normal.

Tomas has been an outcast his whole life

The runt of his litter, Tomas has always been sidelined by his bear clan until one final failure in his coming of age ceremony results in his expulsion.

Two kindred hearts will find each other, but two different goals will drive them.

A chance encounter will bring the two together; an unmistakable connection will link their fates. But can their hearts beat together as one or will their different dreams drive them apart?

EXCERPT

“A mate is someone that you are destined to be with, your soul mate or your other half, whatever you wish to call them. Once a shifter finds their one true mate then they are unable to stop thinking of them, unable to stop wondering what life would be like with them, unable to stop the desire coursing through their veins for the need to touch them, hold them, pleasure them...”

“It’s the most vicious type of love you could experience. It’s when all you can do is think about that person; they take control of your mind and soul. A feeling when thinking of them with someone else makes you sick to the stomach. Where you want to look after that person when they’re sick but also to make love to them all night long.” Tomas whispered the words out and turned to face Ramona as her hand slowly rested his on his thigh, a curious look on her face.

“Have you found your mate yet?”

“I’m not quite sure.” Tomas looked into Ramona’s eyes and could see as well as smell the slight fear that was coming from her body. He had never felt as much desire for anyone else as he felt for Ramona. He wanted to take her in his arms, lay her down on a bed and treasure every inch of her body, to make her feel like nothing she had felt before, to have her craving his touch and for her to only ever want his touch again.

“Tom...” Ramona’s voice was a mere breath as she sat up on the couch before swinging her leg over and positioning herself in his lap, her hands reaching out cup his face. He couldn’t seem to look away from her dark, alluring eyes and the pink lips that he wished to dominate with his own. He took a deep breath before he placed his hand at the small of her back and slowly brushed it up until he wrapped his palm around the back of her neck, bringing her closer to him.
