Lost Cactus: The First Treasury, Full Color Edition John P Hopkins

On a far-flung parcel of government land situated somewhere in the vast reaches of parched American western desert sits an abandoned and long forgotten government facility known as Lost Cactus. That is what the shadowy agency ~ that operates there to this day ~ wants everyone from presidents on down to John Q. Public to believe. Welcome to Lost Cactus – The First Treasury! This full-color book features the hilarious misadventures and shenanigans of the Lost Cactus comic strip characters. Get to know Bentley the Bee, Ty the Dinosaur, Sammy the Squirrel, Doc, Cato, Penny, and General Fox – along with an eclectic supporting cast that wanders in and out of the funny storylines. The comic strips, short stories, and essays in this book provide a keenly comedic commentary on the modern world of ever-evolving technologies, current events, celebrities, conspiracy theories, and the paranormal. Most of all, Lost Cactus is about the shadowy government world that operates outside the realm of public knowledge. This book also represents a paradigm shift in the way comic strips are presented in book form. To begin, all of the content in Lost Cactus – The First Treasury is completely original. Also, unlike a typical comic strip anthology, Lost Cactus – The First Treasury provides a richer and more dynamic interaction between the reader and the comic strip than ever before. Not just a rehash of old strips, it's packed with entertaining short stories, fun commentaries, and colorful illustrations. Each chapter begins with a humorous essay, a short story, or top secret information (direct from the base archives). That is followed by a Sunday comic and eight daily comics. At the end of each chapter is a short quiz to test your new Lost Cactus “uncommon knowledge”. Throughout the book you will also discover facts, trivia, and liner notes relating to the world of Lost Cactus, the comic strip art form and a host of other off-beat topics. Thank you for taking the time to learn more about this incredible book. Also, there is much more on the way! Be sure to visit www.lostcactus.com for more highly classified information. Sit back and enjoy your trip to the top secret world of Lost Cactus, happy reading!
