Carol, a hard-working and driven woman, swears off love and romance after being disappointed a few months before her perfect wedding. Heartbroken, she documents her pain by writing a list to act as a remainder. She sticks to it for a few months until she meets Nick, an average guy who, in Carol's words is "not her type". Nick proves to be exactly what Carol needs, and she finds herself falling for him. One day she comes across the list she made when in pain and this gives her a change of heart about her romantic relationship with Nick. She is left fighting with the will to be happy and the crippling fear of yet another heart break.
