Josie is determined to bring vengeance to Kennedy for Leslie's death, so she decides to marry him in order to cash out on a life insurance policy when he meets an untimely death. Meanwhile, Russell is waiting in the wings, but is struggling to keep his cool, because he wants to possess Josie and make her his wife. Besides, he can't understand why she agreed to marry Kennedy if she's still deeply involved with him.

As a distraction, Josie decides to take a trip to New York to buy her wedding dress, and is joined by a surprise visit from Russell, who in turn buys her wedding dress, then whisks her off to a romantic get-a-way for just the two of them. Raven overhears Tiffany's phone conversation with Ashley, then rushes to tell Kennedy that Russell is in New York with Josie. But, Kennedy's reaction to the news is not quite what Raven expected.

Upon Josie's return from New York, she gets terribly sick and finds out that she's pregnant. She's unhappy with this revelation because she's determined to go through with her plans of revenge. Kennedy could be the father of her baby, but in the back of her mind, she knows it's Russell's. Will Josie be able to go through with the wedding and marry Kennedy? Or, will she have a change of heart and run to Russell, so they can raise their child together?
