"I won't leave you again."

This is what Christine Foster promised on the eve of their wedding, but Nick St. Claire found that there are worst things.

It seemed that whatever could go wrong did as soon as they said "I do" and Nick found himself going from one crisis to another, some of them of his own making. No matter how satisfying they were together in bed, life always seemed to get in the way. When Christine lost her memory and forgot everything about them, it had seemed the final straw.

But he would find out that while all good things come to an end, and nothing lasts forever, that's not always a bad thing.

Follow the lives of Nick and Christine as they find out how true love can heal the deepest hurts.
