Herman Cyril McNeile, MC (28 September 1888 – 14 August 1937), commonly known as Cyril McNeile and publishing under the name H. C. McNeile or the pseudonym Sapper, was a British soldier and author. Drawing on his experiences in the trenches during the First World War, he started writing short stories and getting them published in the Daily Mail. As serving officers in the British Army were not permitted to publish under their own names, he was given the pen name "Sapper" by Lord Northcliffe, the owner of the Daily Mail; the nickname was based on that of his corps, the Royal Engineers. After the war McNeile left the army and continued writing, although he changed from war stories to thrillers. In 1920 he published Bulldog Drummond, whose eponymous hero became his best-known creation. The character was based on McNeile himself, on his friend Gerard Fairlie and on English gentlemen generally. McNeile wrote ten Bulldog Drummond novels, as well as three plays and a screenplay.

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Bulldog Drummond at Bay and Bulldog Drummond can make you truly feel more interested to read.
