Goodbye! Good Men: How Catholic Seminaries Turned Away Two Generations of Vocations From the Priesthood Michael S. Rose

In this explosive new book, investigative reporter Michael S. Rose reveals how deliberate discrimination against traditional, or "orthodox," men has been effected by well placed ideologues who want to change the Catholic Church in America to suit their personal tastes and politics.

Also find out:

How seminary "gay subculture" and its "heterophobia" drive away healthy heterosexual men

How traditional expressions of the faith and acceptance of the Church's teachings often disqualifies a candidate

How psychological counseling is unethically used to expel healthy men from their seminary

Why "orthodoxy" begets vocations

How to eliminate the "vocations crisis" and put an end to the priest shortage

The MOST important book about the Catholic Church in decades!
