After the death of her mother, Lydia Moor is sent by her stepfather to work on the big, rich ranch of his nephew, William Thomson. Her stepfather is aware that William is looking for a wife and thinks that Lydia could be a good woman for him. At twenty three Lydia refuses to become a mail ordered bride, but has to accept Will's offer, because she has nowhere else to go.

At the Black Water ranch, Lenexa, Kansas, William Thomson had just inherited the place from his father and has every intention to make it prosper. He is a proud young man, who had studied in the best East Universities, but had kept his Western spirit. When his uncle asks him to take Lydia in the ranch and find her some work, Will says yes, thinking that she can work in the kitchen. Surprisingly, when she arrives, he changes his plan. The beautiful young woman is intelligent and full of new ideas. She refuses to obey him blindly and in her spare time, starts teaching some of Will's cowboys how to read and write. That is when a new thought comes to his mind – could she be the one?

From the moment they meet, there is tangible physical attraction between them. A fact that leads to many awkward situations...
