Excerpt from In Re California Indians to Date: An Authorized Account of the Present Status of the California Indians and What Has Been Done Up to 1909

For the Indians Of Southern California much Was accomplished by what is known as the Smiley Commission, appointed under the Act of January 13, 1891, upon whose report the same year the President based his order setting apart what are known as the Mission Reservations. For the Indians of the northern part of the State, however, no provision was made at that time.
