Tudor Roses Alice Starmore

Part fashion, part photography, part English history, and all knitting, this splendid new edition was created by Alice Starmore, one of the top names in the craft. A stunning collection of hand-knitted designs inspired by members of the Tudor dynasty, this volume features charts and instructions as well as a fascinating historical background on the royal family. Glorious full-color photography spotlights the completed works as well as the jewelry created especially for Starmore's most ambitious book yet.
