And There Were Giants Hazel Lezah

The victim of a raid on her homeland, a girl is taken far away by her captors to a new land. Over time she overcomes her fear of the 'giants' and learns a new way of life. But this is a divided realm and Roslin's dreams keep coming back to haunt her – perhaps she is right to still fear?

This is a voyage of discovery. Through Roslin and those around her we experience what it is to love and hate, what it is to have phobias and obsessions and how difficult it is to control them. It is about intolerance and prejudice and questions our perceptions. We are never quite sure who to trust.....
