I Am Going Where I Belong Hans Lindor

I am Going Where I Belong is a gripping journey through the plight of a once wealthy immigrant family. Chriscile Leger, mother of two, is forced to flee her native country with her children after her husband is brutally assassinated during a coup d'etat.

"I am Going Where I Belong" is filled with heartrending turns of fate that, through their believability, make each character vibrantly engaging for the reader.

"...Two thumbs up for hans Lindor. A promising writer who has taken a heated topic and turned it into an epic dialogue, Lindor is definitely one to watch." - Midwest Book Review by Carey Yazeed

"...Hans Lindor writes with a delightful conversational style." Reviewyourbook.com by Debra Gaynor

"... Hans Lindor has written a story with a political statement...at times you feel as if you are reading a memoir instead of a fiction novel." Apoo Book Club

"...Lindor is a firm believer that one should "write about what you know," and he succeeds here by writing a narrative that is pure and poetic." Black issues Book Review - Reviewed by Antoinette Dykes
