Somewhere only we know Anna Samuels

Annie Day has been friends with Cassie Meadows since they went to University together. Their lives have moved on and taken them through boyfriends, husbands, children and houses. With Annie's world crumbling around her, she looks to her old friend for support. They agree to meet in the one place they have always found peace-Hope Cove. The woman have been holidaying together at the cove once a year since they met. In Hope, Annie reveals to Cassie how bad things have become at home and Cassie tells her she will be there for her always. They grow closer than they have been in years and every time they meet in 'somewhere only we know' their relationship deepens. With a burgeoning attraction which Annie has denied since they were teenagers, the two women finally take the next step and their connection deepens. Can Annie find her happy ending? Find out in...'Somewhere only we know.'
