A disturbing conversation between a man and woman at the airport, concerning a small boy, begins a strange story of a family who lives on the Big Island. Who are the Darbys, and who are the children they're caring for? Who is Ivan, and what does he have to do with the island of Martiques located far away in the Mediterranean Sea? Who are the two women who intrigue Tana from her very first meeting with them, then discover later they aren't who they appeared to be at first? What is the significance of the two lovely pictures hanging on the wall in their living room? Will Thor and Tana learn the truth about the Darby family before it's too late? Will their involvement bring disaster for them both before it's all over? Join them while they unravel their 'seemingly' unrelated clues and try to discover the real secret of the lagoon. It's an inspirational drama of intrigue, romance, fun and laughter, all in beautiful Hawaii, the land of golden sands, exotic moonlit nights and fun packed days.
