Life on the streets can be hard. When you have no place to live, no secure place to store your valuables and not much room to carry your stuff, simple things can make a big difference. Suddenly things we take for granted become IMPORTANT!

This book has the stories of some of these people... People like Fireman Dave and his grim situation... The mysterious case of the trash can man...

And the angel who came for lunch. It is also a complete cookbook of more than 100 recipes used in the Gospel Mission soup kitchen. Well-balanced, non-allergenic whole food meals which are low in carbs and designed to provide maximum nutrition to the population served. And quantities are listed for a family of five as well as the large group they serve.

We invite you to take a peek into the mysterious dark side of life-we promise that you won't be bored!
