THE LONGEST NOTE (A Brothers of Rock - WILLOW SON - novel) Karolyn James

It was supposed to be a 'reality show' date... but when the cameras turned off, that's when reality began.

Bad boy rockstar guitarist for Willow Son, Ryker, takes a break from the band only to return to find out that the tour has been officially cancelled and the band's future is in jeopardy. Offering some new acoustic material, the record company pushes back, wanting the band to try a new way to get new fans. The result is a chance for one fan to win a date with Ryker.

Struggling to survive, Alyson lives with her rich best friend, hoping better days are awaiting. One night, on a whim, her best friend secretly signs her up to win a date with the guitarist from Willow Son. It's supposed to be a joke, but then Alyson learns that she's in the top ten to win the date. That puts her on stage after a Willow Son concert, staring at the sexy guitarist, knowing there's no chance he'll actually pick her. But he does.

Alyson is not meant for the limelight and Ryker can't get enough of it. The quiet, shy girl and the wild, bad boy rockstar is better left a fantasy, but once reality and romance barges its way into their lives, Ryker and Alyson soon realize that there's more at stake than just an album and a TV show... it's their hearts.
