“Daily Love Letters from God” is a modern day epistle written to believers to help them grow and mature in the principles of a Godly lifestyle. In Biblical times, Paul used letters (or epistles) as a unique teaching tool to empower the church. As our daily walk with God is continually influenced by the contents of these letters, “Daily Love Letters from God” takes principles and life lessons found in the Word of God and delivers them in daily messages that help believers blossom in the things of God. Written with care, love, and from a Biblical foundation, each day’s epistle is a reminder that, p.s. He Loves You. Each day that you read connects you this truth that, “No matter where you are in your walk with God, He loves you enough to continue His conversation with you.”
