And Coi is far from pleased with Joaquim. Adence, still recovering from the terrible battle that left his soul fused with that of his former companion Erlandr, seeks only a life of peace. He discovers, however, that a mysterious darkness now inhabits Apsia, consuming the souls of the dead—and Adence is the only one left with the skills and knowledge to stop it. Tides, former crew-boss and, more recently, fish-wife, keeps her head down and her knife sharp in case people from her past come looking. When she stumbles across an old enemy assaulting a child, however, her plans for hiding are forgotten, and Tides begins to cut a bloody path through Apsia.
