At home for a month's vacation before dedicating herself to her new career as a corporate attorney, Linda Harper sees Wade Preston, her teenage lover, and thinks a little fling with him might make the time go by faster. One night in Wade's bed turns a flickering flame into a raging fire. Her problems are compounded by the interference of the nosy residents of a small southern town and the discovery that her much respected father is harboring his own scandalous secret. How will Linda deal with her conflicting desires?
