Off Campus Charles E.P. Murphy, Jeff Westwood

The first month at college is a challenge for everyone, but the kids at Bellarmine face more than most when the twisted necromancer Azrobas forces them to run a hellish labyrinth in a forgotten dimension.

The youngest son of a British military family who is decidedly not in the military, Ken Sakamoto's already got some issues with living up to expectations. So nobody's more surprised than he is to find himself running the maze full of undead students and sanity-fraying monsters, all for the sake of a girl he's only been dating for a month. And he's not alone: another kid from his floor, all-American, athletic, and armed-to-the-teeth Josh, is in the labyrinth to save his oldest friend Lizzie, and Lizzie's got all the girls fighting their way out every bit as hard as Josh is fighting his way in.

And Azrobas has made it clear only one group gets to go home alive.

They all better move fast. Maybe not too fast though. Every step is taking them closer to Azrobas and while the losers will face a brutal death, the winners are going to pay a greater price.

"Horri-fying throughout with a dark and twisted sense of humor... Off Campus grabs you from the first page, digs its claws in, and doesn't let go until you're way past the end."

- Karen E. Taylor, The Vampire Legacy series and Cellar
