The Export Yellow Pages Steve Curtis

The 2005 edition of "The Export Yellow Pages" is published in a public/private partnership between the U.S. Department of Commerce and Global Publishers. This publication contains profiles on more than 13,000 U.S. exporters. Also included is "The U.S. Trade Assistance Directory", which features U.S. export service providers, and a complete outline of federal export programs. Exports play an integral role in spurring U.S. economic growth and employment. The goal of this publication is to help American companies gain valuable exposure to global buyers, distributors, and agents; to assist U.S. exporters find the export assistance and services that they seek; and to publish information on the many U.S. government export assistance programs. We're confident that you'll find this publication very useful in conducting international business.
