Yes - after you have completed going through Morning Quotes the first time - do it again, over and over again until you have accomplished your mission, goals and dreams. You will be amazed at the power and influence these Morning Quotes, affirmations and meditation messages will have on your life. You can sit back read a chapter of Morning Quotes then do some journal writing and then close your eyes, relax with the sun set, look at the stars at night and fall asleep.

Before you read a chapter of Morning Quotes - always get comfortable and relax, close your eyes and slowly take a few deep breaths, then when you are ready start reading the chapter you are working on. After you have read your daily Morning Quotes chapter, give yourself a few minutes of silence with your eyes closed, remain relaxed and slowly take deep breaths. Think about the messages you read from Morning Quotes and how they affect your thoughts and feelings. Think about how the messages in the Morning Quotes chapter relate to you, how they are helping you with the things you are actively doing to achieve your dreams, goals and passion. Then with a pad of blank paper or a blank page journal book write down the first things that come to your mind.

You can read what you wrote and use it to develop and update your goals list, do list, action plan, calendar, action-vision board, self-messages, and master mind group. Update and read your goals list out loud every morning and every night. Share your visions and goals with your family, friends and co-workers. The more you talk about your visions, goals and dreams the more the things you need and want will come into your life. That is the Law of Attraction in action.

Your own success in realizing anything you want in your life is the total combination of; your own thoughts, intents, inner voice, dreams, self-talk, what you talk about, what you do in your daily life, knowledge, creativity, action-vision board, relationships, awareness of opportunities, what you write about, commitment, confidants, consistency, determination, passion, persistence, goal setting and you taking responsibility and actions. Good luck and enjoy your life's journey with Morning Quotes.

Note: we are always looking for inspirational stories and experiences about individuals, families and organizations that have lived through challenges, setbacks and successes within and/or around their lives.
