Náufragos (Spanish Edition) Emily Bleeker

Lillian Linden es una mentirosa. En apariencia, es la valiente superviviente de un accidente de avión, pero, en realidad, ha estado mintiendo a su familia, a sus amigos y al mundo entero desde que, tanto ella como Dave Hall, el hombre junto al que logró sobrevivir, fueran rescatados en helicóptero de una isla desierta en medio del sur del Pacífico. Después de casi dos años desaparecidos, los náufragos se convierten en el centro de atención de los medios de un día para otro. Pero no pueden contar la verdadera historia de lo que ha sucedido, así que deciden mentir. El público está fascinado con su odisea, pero Dave y Lillian deben volver a sus vidas y con sus respectivos matrimonios.

Genevieve Randall, una dura periodista que dirige un programa de noticias, no acaba de creerse la historia. Sospecha que lo que Dave y Lillian explican sobre el resto de pasajeros que les acompañaban en el avión no es cierto y, ahora, está decidida a llegar al fondo del asunto y sacar la verdad a la luz, aunque tenga que destruir más vidas en el intento.

En esta fascinante historia de supervivencia, secretos y redención, dos personas normales a las que ha unido la tragedia deberán finalmente enfrentarse a la verdad..., por desgarradora que sea.
