Ralph Waldo Emerson: Essential Spiritual Writings (Modern Spiritual Masters Series) Ralph Waldo Emerson

Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1883), “the Concord Sage,” was a lecturer and essayist, who became the preeminent exponent of Transcendentalism. After studies at Harvard Divinity School he became a Congregational minister, but eventually resigned, judging, “This mode of commemorating Christ is not suitable to me.” Strongly influenced by Indian philosophy and religion, he believed that we can receive divine truth through nature. Though he is considered one of the most significant intellectual figures in American history, this volume offers a fresh perspective by highlighting his extensive writings on spiritual themes. Like his friend Henry David Thoreau, Emerson is one of those who might have described himself as “spiritual, not religious,” thus speaking directly to a generation of contemporary seekers.
