Compadre lobo (Spanish Edition) Gustavo Sainz

Novela sobre la aventura de iniciación, del aprendizaje, festiva y dolorosa a un tiempo. El narrador participa como actor y autor al recuperar el pasado del grupo en general, y la figura de Lobo, el héroe urbano y nocturno, en particular. La noche le ofrece a Lobo la ocasión de descubrir sus neurosis y sus talentos. ¿Es el amor una batalla y los amantes frenéticos guerreros? ¿Todavía es posible contar una historia de amor? En las noches de la ciudad de México, noches que generan sus propias formas de vida, sus propios peligros y sus nuevos mitos, dos hombres y una mujer se enfrentan en una sucesión de vertiginosas escaramuzas, a todos los roles que les ofrece una sociedad periclitada: amigos de infancia, compañeros de borracheras implacables y orgías sorprendentes, cómplices callejeros, esposos que develan su intimidad con desenvoltura poco común o pícaros adúlteros, dueños de un cinismo y una ironía devastadora. A su alrededor un mundo de divertidas e inolvidables comparsas: la abuela de las doscientas enaguas, el boxeador que siempre perdía, el que bebía como campeón, el librero emigrado, feroz y anticlerical pero comprensivo y cómplice, el falsificador de arte prehispánico, el profesor de Química, el pintor homosexual, el crítico de artes plásticas y las mujeres reales que se vuelven imaginarias. La narración se desenvuelve entre una épica lumpen y la desenvoltura especulativa de un escéptico militante que se esfuerza en rescatar a la mujer amada mediante un discurso dramático en un mundo que no es dramático. ¿Para qué enamorarnos? ¿Es ley de vida la que nos exige estar enamorados? Esta novela propone algunas respuestas tan posibles como inimaginables.
