Liam did not want to move – especially into an old, dilapidated farm house. But when Sarah, a fourteen-year-old ghost, asks him to help her solve her family's murders, he is glad he did. Solving a 150-year-old murder is harder than he thought, especially when all the evidence points to Sarah, who swears she didn't do it. Will he solve the murder, allowing Sarah to finally rest in peace or will he find out that he's being haunted by a mentally unstable ax murderer?
