Blown Away begins with Hurricane Charley and will take you on a journey that illustrates how our God can use even the worst of events to breathe new life into the hardest of hearts (like mine was!). Even though news reports called Charley a disaster for everyone whose life it touched, for this woman, it was the beginning of faith in the Creator of the storm.

I pray my story will inspire you, and remind you that peace and hope can be found for your future, no matter what challenges you might be facing right now. You, too, can learn to live your life above temporal things; money, houses and cars. Like me, you can reset your focus on what really matters; our Father in Heaven, the love you can share, and complete peace, no matter what storms may blow through your life.

I share the personal details of the triumphs and challenges of beginning my faith walk later in life, and changing my future for eternity. I pray my story will encourage you to seek the God of Holy Scripture with new eyes, and find out for yourself the difference between a religion and a relationship.
